

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2008 question paper

3248 SECOND LANGUAGE URDU

3248/01

Paper 1 (Composition and Translation), maximum raw mark 55

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began.

All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

Mark schemes must be read in conjunction with the question papers and the report on the examination.

- CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2008 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Part 1: Directed Writing

The syllabus specifies that the candidates are to write an essay in Urdu of about 150 words. Examiners are to read up to 200 words and ignore any further writing. If one bullet point is not covered the maximum mark for language is 7/9.

Language (out of 9)
8–9 Very good	Confident use of complex sentence patterns, generally accurate, extensive vocabulary, good sense of idiom.
6–7 Good	Generally sound grasp of grammar in spite of quite a few lapses; reads reasonably; some attempt at varied vocabulary and sentence patterns.
4–5 Adequate	A tendency to be simple, clumsy or laboured; some degree of accuracy; inappropriate use of idiom.
2–3 Poor	Consistently simple or pedestrian sentence patterns (basic sentence structure) with persistent errors; limited vocabulary.
0–1 Very poor	Only the simplest sentence patterns, little evidence of grammatical awareness, very limited vocabulary.

Content (out of 6)

Points to be covered:

1. Why young people don't read newspapers
2. The need for topics of interest to young people
3. Suggestions for improving newspapers

- 2 marks for each bullet point
- mark each relevant point in the margin as C1, C2, C3 etc.

2 marks	bullet point fully covered
1 mark	bullet point partially covered
0 mark	bullet point not covered

At the end of the writing indicate the separate marks for content and language along with the total, for example C = 6 + L = 9 Total = 15.

[Total: 15]

Part 2: Letter, Report, Dialogue or Speech

The syllabus specifies that the candidates are to write in Urdu of about 200 words. This year there is a choice between a dialogue or report.

Read up to 250 words and ignore any further writing.

If the candidate writes in the wrong form, for example writes a letter or an essay rather than a dialogue, the maximum mark for language is 12 and for content 3.

In the letter if personal opinion on the topic and example are not included at all, then the maximum mark for content is 3 and for language 12.

Show marks at the end of the writing as C = 4 + L = 11, Total = 15.

Language (out of 15)		Content (out of 5)
13–15	Very good Confident use of complex sentence patterns, generally accurate, extensive vocabulary, good sense of idiom.	5	Very good Detailed, clearly relevant and well illustrated; coherently argued and structured.
10–12	Good Generally sound grasp of grammar in spite of quite a few lapses; reads reasonably; some attempt at varied vocabulary and sentence patterns.	4	Good Sound knowledge and generally relevant; some ability to develop argument and draw conclusions.
7–9	Adequate A tendency to be simple, clumsy or laboured; some degree of accuracy; inappropriate use of idiom.	3	Adequate Some knowledge, but not always relevant; a more limited capacity to argue.
4–6	Poor Consistently simple or pedestrian sentence patterns (basic sentence structure) with persistent errors; limited vocabulary.	2	Poor Some attempt at argument, tends to be sketchy or unspecific; little attempt to structure an argument; major misunderstanding of question.
0–3	Very poor Only the simplest sentence patterns, little evidence of grammatical awareness, very limited vocabulary.	0–1	Very poor Vague and general, ideas presented at random.

[Total: 20]

Part 3: Translation

This is marked essentially for close transfer of meaning. Spelling or grammar mistakes that do not impede the meaning are not penalized.

The passage is divided up into 40 separate parts but is marked sentence by sentence. For each sentence indicate the number of correct marks in the margin. For example for the first sentence there are 4 marks, so put 4 in the margin if it is all rendered correctly. If there is one error put 3 minus 1 (3 – 1), if 2 errors put 2 – 2 etc. Underline the mistake in the text or if missing put a missing mark (an upside down V). No half marks are given. At the end of the passage add up the total of marks and divide by 2 to give the total out of 20.
