A Building developments and nature

Some people argue that we cannot have building developments without damaging parts of nature.

Discuss this idea with the Examiner.

You may wish to consider such things as:

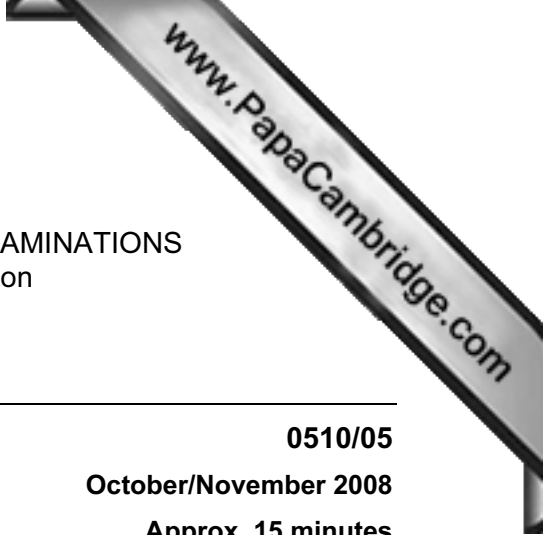

- areas of natural beauty you have been to and how you felt about them
- building developments you have seen and how you felt about them
- ways that such development might damage nature
- ways that building developments and nature can exist side by side – some examples that you know about
- the idea that there can be just as much beauty in architecture as in nature.

You are free to consider any other ideas of your own.

You are not allowed to make any written notes.

B Medical matters

We all have views on medicine, hospitals and doctors.

Discuss these views with the Examiner.

You may wish to consider such things as:

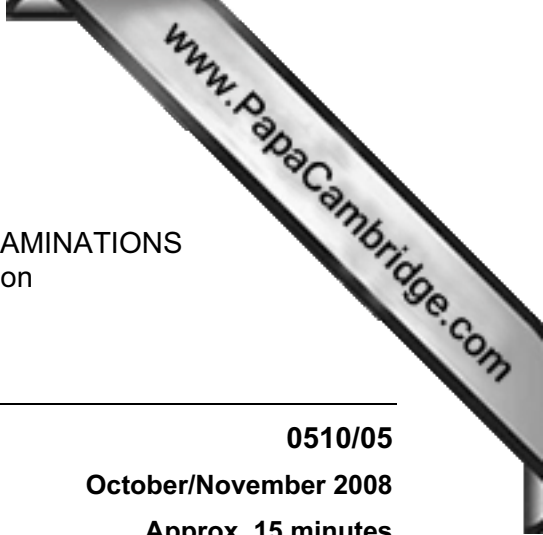

- your own experience of health care
- doctors you have met, or seen on television or film
- how difficult it might be at times to be a doctor
- improvements you would like to see in medicine or health care
- the suggestion that we should only treat patients who have tried to be healthy in their lives.

C Change

A change is supposed to be as good as a rest.

Discuss issues surrounding change with the Examiner.

You may wish to consider such things as:

- times in your life when you have made changes
- times when changes other people have made have affected you
- positive and negative aspects of change
- examples of how modern life has brought about change in society
- how you would like the world to change in the future, and how you think it might actually change.

You are free to consider any other ideas of your own.

D The responsibilities of fame

We have probably all been fascinated by famous people at some time in our lives.

Discuss this issue with the Examiner.

You may wish to consider such things as:

- whether you would like to be famous, and what for
- a famous person you know who sets a good example to others
- any famous people who you think set bad examples
- how the pressure of fame might affect or change some people
- reasons why 'badly-behaved' famous people seem to get more attention.
