MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2023 series for most Cambridge IGCSE, Cambridge International A and AS Level components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

Generic Marking Principles

These general marking principles must be applied by all examiners when marking candidate answers. They should be applied alongside the specific content of the mark scheme or generic level descriptors for a question. Each question paper and mark scheme will also comply with these marking principles.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 1:

Marks must be awarded in line with:

- the specific content of the mark scheme or the generic level descriptors for the question
- the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the generic level descriptors for the question
- the standard of response required by a candidate as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 2:

Marks awarded are always whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 3:

Marks must be awarded positively:

- marks are awarded for correct/valid answers, as defined in the mark scheme. However, credit is given for valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme, referring to your Team Leader as appropriate
- marks are awarded when candidates clearly demonstrate what they know and can do
- marks are not deducted for errors
- marks are not deducted for omissions
- answers should only be judged on the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar when these features are specifically assessed by the question as indicated by the mark scheme. The meaning, however, should be unambiguous.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 4:

Rules must be applied consistently, e.g. in situations where candidates have not followed instructions or in the application of generic level descriptors.

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 5:

Marks should be awarded using the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme for the question (however; the use of the full mark range may be limited according to the quality of the candidate responses seen).

GENERIC MARKING PRINCIPLE 6:

Marks awarded are based solely on the requirements as defined in the mark scheme. Marks should not be awarded with grade thresholds or grade descriptors in mind.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Applying the Mark Scheme

- When marking a response the overall criteria to be considered should be – ‘How good is this response to this question?’
- The ‘Level Descriptor’ should be used to decide the Level into which the quality of the answer fits.
- Exhaustive lists of possible facts are not given in the mark scheme, as there is often a choice of factual knowledge that candidates may use.
- WHERE EXAMPLES OF RESPONSES ARE GIVEN, THESE ARE NOT PRESCRIPTIVE, BUT ARE INTENDED AS A GUIDE. It is not possible to cover every possible type of response within a levels of response mark scheme and examiners are expected to use their professional judgement at all times in ensuring that responses are placed in the correct levels and given an appropriate mark within that level.
- Marking must be positive. Marks must not be deducted for inaccurate or irrelevant parts of answers. In itself, poor use of historical terminology, spelling, grammar or handwriting does not affect the mark. The overall quality of the answer to the question should be judged.
- If a candidate reaches a particular level s/he must be rewarded with a mark within that level. It is not necessary to work through the levels.
- The full range of marks should be used. Do not be afraid to award full marks or no marks. Failure to do this will seriously affect the distribution of marks. Be prepared to reward candidates who show any level of understanding. The mark scheme starts from basic acceptable response. Where a band of marks is indicated for a level these marks should be used with reference to the development of the answer within that level.

Question	Answer	Marks
1(b)	Why did Louis Philippe abdicate?	6
	Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason (Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Louis Philippe abdicated because of the economic depression between 1846 and 1847. This was caused by poor harvests, food shortages and a financial crisis. This led to high unemployment, especially in Paris. The king became unpopular with the working class because of this. He was also unpopular with the middle class as many businessmen went bankrupt. Louis Philippe did little to help them, thinking this was not necessary as he won the elections of 1846. His failure to deal with the economic crisis made him very unpopular and led to his abdication.'	4–5
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes reasons (One mark for each identification/description) e.g. 'Louis ignored demands for constitutional reform.' 'Many were disappointed by the lack of social reforms.' 'There was an economic crisis with high unemployment and price rises.' 'Writers like Louis Blanc made the king unpopular.' 'The French wanted a republic.' 'The reform banquets offered the opportunity of organising opposition to the king.' 'Louis banned the banquets which increased the opposition to him.' 'In February there were demonstrations and fighting in Paris.' 'The chief minister, Guizot, and his polices made the king unpopular.'	2–3

	Level 4 Explanation of both sides 7–9 A L4 answer will have a minimum of three explanations (2 on one side; 1 on the other). This will be worth a mark of 7. Fuller explanation of one issue to be given two marks. An answer which only has one explanation on one side of the argument cannot be awarded more than 8.
	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks 4–6 More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘The growth of liberalism was significant in the revolutions. Many wanted the freedom to vote, worship and own land. They wanted freedom of speech to express their views and freedom of the press. People wanted a say in how their country was governed.’ OR e.g. ‘Nationalism also played a significant part in the revolutions. In Hungary, the national groups were seeking independence from an empire, whilst in Germany and Italy nationalists wished to unite with other states to form a larger nation.’
	Level 2 Identifies AND / OR describes 2–3 One mark for each point. e.g. ‘Liberal ideas included having the right to vote.’ ‘Liberals wanted a say in how their country was governed.’ ‘Liberals thought there should be freedom of the press.’ ‘Nationalists wanted independence from Imperial control.’ ‘Hungarians wanted freedom from control by Austria.’ ‘Italian nationalists wanted to form an independent Italy.’ ‘German nationalists wanted freedom from Austria and to unite the German states.’

The slow movement of the Piedmontese Army gave the Austrian forces an opportunity to get reinforcements.’ OR e.g. ‘However, the Pope was also instrumental in the failure of the revolution as he withdrew his support in his Allocution. He felt uncomfortable fighting against a mainly Catholic nation even though he initially wanted to support a joining up of some of the Italian states.’	4–6

3(c)	‘The main reason for France’s defeat in the war of 1870 was Prussia’s economic power.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.	10

	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Economic strength was very important as it enabled Prussia to be stronger militarily. The development of an integrated economy was important. This was aided by the Zollverein. In Prussia there was rapid industrial growth using the natural resources of coal and iron ore, and this stimulated economic growth. This industry also enabled the development of a railway system giving rapid mobilisation of troops and equipment. This financial strength and physical resources were of great value against Austria and France.’ OR e.g. ‘However, Bismarck’s skill was important. Bismarck analysed the strengths and weaknesses of European countries and developed his foreign policy around this. He could have pressed for unification in 1866, but he believed that if Prussia absorbed too much territory at once, this would cause problems. Austria’s defeat was followed by lenient treatment at the Treaty of Prague, thus ensuring neutrality if Prussia and France went to war.’	4–6

Lincoln had no intention of allowing the South to secede from the Union.’ OR e.g. ‘The South felt it needed to keep slavery so that it could run its plantations with a profit. 	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘In some ways Lloyd George wanted Germany to be punished harshly. He knew that the British public thought that Germany should be punished for the heavy casualties which had been inflicted on Britain during the war. There was a general election in November 1918 and Lloyd George understood that, if he were to stand a chance of being re-elected, he would have to insist on Germany paying the full cost of the war. He was also keen to benefit from Germany’s loss of colonies.’ OR e.g. ‘However, when it came down to agreeing the peace settlement in January 1919, Lloyd George seemed not to support such a hard peace. Germany had been an important trading partner of Britain and he was worried that British trade would suffer if Germany was punished too harshly and made to pay severe reparations. This was one reason he went against Clemenceau’s idea of establishing the Rhineland as an independent state – it was too important to the German economy. Lloyd George was also worried about the influence of Communism and saw Germany as a barrier against that. This meant he was less keen on a severe peace settlement than it first appeared.’	4–6

The Slavery Commission freed 200 000 slaves in Sierra Leone and the Refugee Committee freed 400 000 prisoners of war. The Health Committee set up institutions to develop vaccines for leprosy and malaria and is regarded as the most successful part of the League as it still exists today as the WHO.’ OR e.g. ‘The League was unsuccessful in solving disputes where major powers were involved. For instance, in the Corfu Crisis the League appeared to give in to pressure from Mussolini and Greece was made to pay a huge amount of compensation for the murder of an Italian General after the invasion of Corfu by Italian forces. 7(b)	Why was Berlin a cause of tension between the Allied powers?	6
	Level 3 Explains ONE reason	4–5
	(Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. 'Berlin had been divided into four zones with each of the Allied powers having one sector. 	Level 3 One-sided explanation OR one explanation of both sides 5 to 6 marks More detailed explanation of one issue to be given two marks. e.g. ‘Communes were a success for China. Many millions of people lived in them and Mao achieved his aim of controlling the peasantry and the productivity of the peasants, converting them into communists. By using propaganda, Mao encouraged productivity and ensured that the people were educated in the way he intended – large speakers in fields where peasants worked meant that they could hear political speeches by Mao. Communes controlled many aspects of the lives of workers, thus achieving Mao’s objectives.’ OR e.g. ‘The communes were not a success. Increasing industrial production was an aim of the Great Leap Forward and the introduction of communes via backyard furnaces which would produce steel and machinery. Although production was high to start with, ultimately the machines and tools being quickly made were of very poor quality, often fell apart and were unsafe. To keep backyard furnaces going, workers were kept back from working in the fields. This meant that insufficient food was grown and this led to famine, with millions of deaths between the late 1950s and the early 1960s. The furnaces also used huge amounts of coal and the railway network suffered from shortages of fuel. This had a negative impact on the economy as a whole.’	4–6

On a number of occasions, they took the law into their own hands and carried out arrests without warrants, killings, the use of torture, beatings, using electric shock treatment, kidnappings and other atrocities. As a result, this led to violence from many black communities because of this illegal treatment.' OR e.g. 'However, there were other issues facing the transition of power. Mandela's main problem concerned Chief Buthelezi, Prime Minister of KwaZulu and head of Inkatha. Buthelezi was a Zulu nationalist and hoped to make KwaZulu an independent state. This was at odds with Mandela's ambitions for a unified South Africa. Friction between the ANC and Inkatha often led to violence, testing the fragile relationship between Mandela and de Klerk.'	4–6

21(b)	Why did war break out in June 1967?	6
Level 4 Explains TWO reasons	6
Level 3 Explains ONE reason	4–5
(Four marks for one explanation, five marks for full explanation) e.g. ‘On 22nd of May, Nasser closed the Straits of Tiran, which led into the Gulf of Aqaba, to Israeli shipping. The Israelis regarded this as an act of aggression against Israel and claimed that the USA, France and Britain had guaranteed free passage for all shipping through the Gulf of Aqaba in 1957. The Americans suggested to an Israeli delegation in Washington that Israel should take action on its own to open the Straits and this led to war.’

To start with, the Arabs made rapid progress with the Egyptians expanding into Sinai and the Syrians retaking the Golan Heights. To some extent the Arabs had overreached themselves. Within three days of the initial attack, the Israelis had organised their forces and started to fight back. The Arabs had underestimated the military superiority of the Israelis and suffered heavy casualties and lost land.' OR e.g. 'However, it could also be argued that Israel was successful because of its own strength and support from their allies. Although the invasion was unexpected, the Israelis were able to gather their forces quickly and respond decisively. The US proved to be a valuable ally as Nixon refused to broker a ceasefire until Israel had recovered all of its lost land.'	4–6
