Write your Centre number, candidate number and name on all the work you hand in.

Write in dark blue or black pen.

Do not use staples, paper clips, highlighters, glue or correction fluid.

Answer both Part One and Part Two.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

This document consists of 3 printed pages and 1 blank page.

Part One

Write on one of the following topics.

At the head of your composition put the number of the topic you have chosen.

You are advised to spend about 60 minutes on this part of the paper and to write between 350 and 600 words. Total marks for this part: 40.

- 1 Describe someone who makes you very angry and two occasions when you let your anger show.
- 2 What are the pleasures and the disappointments of shopping?
- 3 Friendship.
- 4 Write about an occasion when someone had to find a family possession which had been lost.
- 5 Write a story which includes the words: 'We all agreed it was too late to do anything about it'.

Part Two

Begin your answer on a fresh page.

You are advised to spend about 30 minutes on this part of the paper and to write between 200 and 300 words. Total marks for this part: 20.

You were recently visiting a famous place in your country. Suddenly an old man fell to the ground. One other person was involved. You were the only person who saw what happened. The police ask you for an account of what you saw.

Write your account. You must include the following:

- exactly when and where the incident took place
- a description of the old man who fell
- what caused the old man to fall
- how the other person was involved
- what happened next.

You must cover all five points in detail. You should add further details if you wish and make your account accurate and helpful for the police. Start your account 'To the Police' and remember to add your signature and the date.
